

SUMMER WRAP UP

As we move forward, it's good to reflect on the past. Here are a few of our "stats" from the summer:

- Bright Lights celebrated our 31st year serving Lincoln and the surrounding area.
- We served nearly 1,400 students with 113 half-day classes/full-day camps taught by 92 different teachers. The classes were popular, because over 650 of those students attended more than one class/camp.

Read More

IN THIS ISSUE:

Welcome Lisa
Suggest a Class Topic
Teachers for 2018
Usborne Book Fair

WELCOME, LISA!

We are excited to announce that Lisa Sypal has joined Bright Lights as our new executive director.

Read More about Lisa, her experience and her new role at Bright Lights.

SUGGEST A CLASS TOPIC

Bright Lights offers a wide variety of class topics each summer. It's one of the things that makes us unique! We are always looking for new class ideas to add to our curriculum. If you'd like to share an idea, we'd love to hear it!

Share an Idea

TEACHERS FOR SUMMER 2018

So what's involved in being a Bright Lights teacher? Renee Ford, our education coordinator tells us that first, you don't have to be a certified teacher.

Read More

USBORNE BOOK FAIR

What makes reading books to children even better? When purchasing them helps a great cause— namely the Bright Lights Scholarship Program! Shop using the link below and a percentage of your purchase from Usborne Books will be credited to Bright Lights.

Shop Now

Connect with us

